GIVE THANKS FOR

- Julie Rudder (Waddy) joining us today with her husband and for the gifted local translators who will be working hard in a translation workshop aiming to produce the Christmas story for children in Anindilyakwa for the next 2 weeks. Also for the provision of a wonderful building in Angurugu to host this workshop.
- Ryan and Chrystel continuing to meet each week for Bible study and for Ryan's faithful action in praying and calling other band members to pray for a band member who fainted then stopped breathing while they were away recording recently and for God graciously answering this prayer with the restored life of this young man.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

- New enthusiasm for translating the Scriptures into Anindilyakwa to ensue from the workshop and for more children to understand the love of God for them through being able to hear the Christmas story in their own language.
- Ryan's band members who are talking about being baptised to come to full saving faith in the Lord Jesus and for Ryan to continue faithfully witnessing to them.
- Proposed healing group weekend away with Liz and Kate Beer at end of September that the women may be available to come, share stories and find healing in Christ through Word and Spirit.
